

DECLARATION OF AUTHORSHIP AND LEGITIMACY

The applicants declare and warrant that they are the sole authors of the submitted work. They further guarantee that the work does not infringe any third-party intellectual property rights and that all necessary rights, licenses, and permissions are duly held by the applicants. This includes, in particular, image rights of any identifiable persons depicted in the work and copyright for any music included therein. In the case of an original audio creation, the applicants confirm that the work does not incorporate material created by other artists.

The World Heritage Site Völklinger Hütte accepts no liability for any use of content for which the applicants do not hold the corresponding rights.
