THE TRUE SIZE OF AFRICA

9.11.24–17.8.25

Exactly 140 years ago, in November 1884, the Congo Conference in Berlin began, dividing Africa among the colonial powers without any African participation – a timely reason to take a fresh look at this vast continent and the people who come from it, from November 2024 at World Heritage Völklinger Hütte. THE TRUE SIZE OF AFRICA explores ways to detect thought traditions, prejudices, and stereotypes, creating new perspectives through cultural history and contemporary art, through constant shifts in viewpoint, and through a multiplicity of artistic voices.

While a MUSEUM OF MEMORABILITY reflects on Africa's past and present from the perspective of colonial Europe, African sculptures and objects from private collections in Saarland enter into a dialogue with the machines and flywheels of the historic blower hall. Major artworks from recent decades are paired with numerous sound and spatial installations realised especially for the show by artists from Africa and the global diaspora, all making THE TRUE SIZE OF AFRICA tangible. For the first time, this exhibition route, reflecting the vastness of the subject, extends from the Pump house through the Blower hall, the Compressor hall, the Sintering plant, and all the way to the Ore shed.
